

Parting Ways Dr. Mark Attucks Visit to New Bedford & Plymouth

Sept 1- Sept 3

August 19, 2016

For Immediate Release:

PartingWays.org would like to invite you to a fundraiser with special guest Dr. Mark Attucks, direct descendant of Crispus Attucks, first casualty of the Revolutionary War at the Battle at Bunker Hill. On September 2, 2016 at 6 pm at the Cape Verdean Vets Hall, 561 Purchase St, New Bedford Ma 02740 PartingWays.org is inviting you to attend a night of information, entertainment and refreshments. PartingWays.org and the New Bedford Public School Department are in the process of incorporating the History of Parting Ways site into the history curriculum. Parting Ways Memorial site, located in Plymouth, Ma is home to the burial sites of 4 Black Revolutionary soldiers who fought with General Washington. These soldiers were given land and lived there in a community known as the New Guinea Settlement.

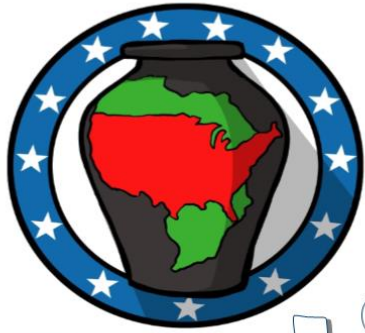

Dr. Attucks is coming to New Bedford to help pass out the word of the Parting Ways Organization. He will be traveling to the site in Plymouth with students from the New Bedford Public Schools, will be interviewed by these students and will also attend the fundraiser at the Vets hall where he will deliver a powerful message about Legacy, Strength and Perseverance. Special thank you to Dr. Jason DeFalco, Chief Officer of NBPS and the whole New Bedford Public Schools' family for taking such a vested interested in the Parting Ways Organization.

All are welcome to attend the different events throughout the weekend. There is a $10 donation for the fundraiser and sponsorships are available. Thank you and hope to see you there!
